TRIAL OF DR ROBERTSON BEGINS THIS AFTERNOON

Morning Session of Court Adjourned as Courtesy to Political Speakers.

The trial of Dr. F. Solon Roberson, charged with shooting to death Por-er M. Brindley, will be taken up in the Circuit court at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

One hundred and twenty five jurors have been summoned and it is expected the jury can be organized today. The case was expected to be heard this morning, but Judge Kyle adjourned court until 2 o'clock to permit several political addresses to be made.

The defense and state have summoned a large number of witnesses and it is hardly likely that the case can be completed within the two days originally allotted to it.

The murder case of Charley Namie, accused of killing a negro, was set for hearing Wednesday, but probably will be postponed to the latter part of the week.

At Roberson's preliminary hearing, the defense did not offer any testimony and no intimation regarding the character of the evidence to be submitted by the defendant's counsel has been given.

When Roberson was arraigned before Judge Kyle, following his indictment by the grand jury, his counsel entered a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity.

A FLOCK OF PLANES AT THE AUTO SHOW

THREE FLYING CORPORATIONS ARE ANXIOUS TO HAVE MA-CHINES ON THE GROUND.

Indications are that there will be a flock of aeroplanes at the automobile show, which opens April 6. It was announced today that three flying corporations had opened negotiations with the view of having ships here for commercial purposes, and that one of these had already signed a contract to send two planes.
Probabilities are that at least half a dozen birdmen will wing their way through the local ozone during the big exposition.

It was also announced today by B.
L. Malone that a "one-lung" Cadillac which has been in use for 20 years will be operated during the show, and that free rides on this single-cylinder vehicle will be given to all comers.

The auto show and the city of Albany were widely advertised in Sunday newspapers. Both the Birmingham Ledger and the Birmingham News carried a double spread, one page being devoted to the city and one to the show, while the Age-Herald, Huntsville Times and Huntsville Telegram each carried full page ads of the show and merchant's exposition.

RESPONSIBILITY OF PARENTS IN HOMES STRESSED SUNDAY BY REV. DAVENPORT

Methodist Pastor Preaches to Large Crowd in the Centenary Drive.

CHRISTIAN HOME IS PARAMOUNT ISSUE

Fall of Citadel Will Bring Victory for Satan, Preacher Declares.

His large audience gave full assent to his teachings yesterday morning when Rev. George M. Davenport, pastor of the First Methodist church of Decatur, preached from the text:
"As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." The speaker said that the home was the one institution that had successfully stood the impact of all time. He said that the Christian home was the citadel that must be held at all costs, and declared with strong emphasis, that if it fell, "we had as well consign ourselves to barbarism."

"The press," said the preacher, "has recently carried a news story saying that an English writer had prophesied that polygamy was to obtain in the Western world. If such is to be the case we had as well shut up shop and surrender outright to the forces of evil. The race is not only cradled in the home, but there it is trained, developed and inspired. The Spartan home with its Spartan virtues made the Spartan heroes. The Ger-man's lack of home made Germany what it is today."

Biggest Failure
Said Rev. Davenport: "The biggest failure you are going to make; if you fail, will be the failure you will make with your children. There is nothing comparable to the importance of your responsibility to your children. If fathers are loafing around drug stores at night, instead of assisting in the training of their children, they must need approach the final judgment in fear and trembling."

"I would not detract one iota from the responsibility or the glory that belongs to mothers. There is no love like mother's love. And there is no hand that can give the divine touch to her child's life, as can a mother's hand. But the place and responsibility of the father has been divinely fixed as over the home. He must measure up to his responsibilities.
And parents cannot hide behind the skirts of the Sunday School teacher and say children should receive their religious training in the Sunday school. God gives parents the keeping of the young, while their little lives are plastic, impressionable, and helpless in their hands. Once you have moulded children's lives, their characters are apt to remain fixed."
"Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old, he will not depart from it. This scripture does not mean that the child is to wander from the way and then return to it. It means that he will be with the way and stay in the way until the end."

The speaker said that every family should by all means maintain a family altar, and gave notable instances of where the religious training of early life had held people firm and true.
Rev. Davenport's eloquence and logic held the closest attention of his hearers.

A consecration meeting followed the sermon, in which parents especially were asked to rededicate their lives to the promotion of Christian religion in the children and younger people. Quite a number were received into the church at the morning service, making a total of 24 accessions to the first Methodist church since the opening of the Centenary evangelistic campaign, ten days ago.

Political Field Day is Staged at Court House, With Many Orators.

"COTTON TOM" TELLS OF HIS PAST RECORD

Recently Resigned Congressman
Will be Heard at Masonic Tonight.

SPEAKS TONIGHT AT THE MASONIC THEATRE

Hon. Thomas Heflin, candidate for U. S. Senator, will speak tonight at 8 o'clock at the Masonic theatre. Ladies have been invited to attend.

The Morgan County courthouse today became the mecca of the candidates and the center of the political action in Alabama.

With one of the biggest crowds in the history of the county in the courtroom this morning addresses were made by Congressman J. Thomas Heflin, candidate for the senate to succeed the late Senator Bankhead; Joel B. Brown, of Cullman, candidate for the supreme court to succeed himself; Henry P. Merritt, of Tuskegee, candidate to succeed himself on the court of appeals; Samuel D. Weakley, of Birmingham, candidate for Senator Underwood's place in the senate, began speaking at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon and Judge Thomas, of the Supreme court, who is seeking re-election, was expected to arrive here some time today. His cards were being distributed by friends.

In addition to the candidates for state offices, the county candidates were out in large numbers.

The speakers this morning were introduced by Judge O. Kyle, who introduced Judge Brown, as the first speaker, calling attention to the fact that Judge Brown is a native Morgan county.

Heflin Speaks

Congressman Heflin followed Judge Brown and confined his plea for support largely to his record as a friend of the cotton farmers. He reviewed at length his efforts to readjust and make safe for the farmer the marketing of his products and told of his fight against the cotton gamblers of Wall Street, who sought to keep the Southern farmer poverty ridden. He explained how the new laws reducing the number of grades permitted on the exchange had caused the price of cotton to go up. He painted a tragic picture of the condition of the Southern cotton farmers during the dark days when cotton sold from four to eight cents a pound. He told of the tricks resorted to by Wall Street to bring about rumors of panic whenever the farmers began to market their crop, in order that the price might be kept down and the farmer frightened into letting his product go on a low market.

"The cotton industry is my hobby," he declared and explained how the Federal Reserve bank, a piece of Democratic legislation, has enabled the farmer to borrow money on his cotton warehouse receipts and to take advantage of a high market.

He reviewed the fight in Congress to fix the price of cotton and dramatically related the story of his interview with President Wilson in an effort to enlist the aid of the administration against the proposed measure. As a result of his own, and the efforts of other Southern representatives, Congressman Heflin said, the cotton-price fixing legislation was never passed.

Congressman Heflin stated he differed with some on the prohibition amendment and had voted against it because of the state-right principles, but that after its adoption he had voted for enforcement legislation and amid applause declared he hoped the time would never come when the saloon would be returned to Alabama.

FIRST INVASION OF NORTH ALABAMA MADE BY WEAKLEY; HE SPEAKS TWICE

Candidate for U. S. Senate Heard at the Shops and at Court House.

RECALLS THE FACT
HE'S A NATIVE SON

Was Born at Somerville in Same House With Malcolm R.
Patterson.

Judge Samuel D. Weakley, of Birmingham, former chief justice of Alabama and author of most of the state's dry laws, today invaded his native county of Morgan in the interest of his candidacy for U. S. Senator to succeed Senator Underwood.
Judge Weakley spoke at the shop gates at noon, and delivered address at the court house early this afternoon. He was accompanied here by his campaign manager, Joel Webb, and leaves this afternoon for Birmingham but will return here later and do further campaigning.

In his address at the shops, Judge Weakley called attention to the fact that he was born at Somerville, Morgan county, in the same house in which his equally distinguished first cousin, Malcolm R. Patterson, former governor of Tennessee, first saw the light of day. His parents moved to Florence during his infancy and he was reared there. He later moved to Memphis where through the influence of Col. Josiah Patterson he secured an appointment as assistant attorney general of Shelby county. On his return to Alabama he made Birmingham his home.

also establish branch plants at Chattaooga, Tenn., Huntsville, Ala., Albany, Ala., and Jackson, Tenn.

It is understood that this company

Corinth, Miss., as far east as Decatur and as far south as Jasper.

TWISTER SPLITS ON EDGE OF CHICAGO; LOSS IN SOUTHERN STATES ENORMOUS

West Point and La Grange, Ga., Both Report Heavy Casualties.

FIVE MEET DEATH
AT AGRICOLA, ALA.

Illinois Metropolis Suffered, Although Business District Was Skipped.

(International News Service.)
LA GRANGE, Ga., March 29.— Relief workers reported at noon today 31 dead and 168 injured, victims of Sunday's tornado. The property damage is estimated at $500,000. The wind reached a velocity of 80 miles an hour. Over 100 homes were razed here and the loss of life when the list is completed may reach 50. School buildings have been turned into temporary hospitals.

(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, March 29.—With the dead estimated at from 193 to 314, more than 1,000 persons injured and families cast homeless into the streets and a property loss of many millions of dollars, Sunday's tornado will pass into history as one of the greatest storm disasters on record in the history of the U. S.

(International News Service.)
CHICAGO, March 29.—With at least 159 persons dead and 1,000 injured in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin, Georgia and Alabama, the tornado which swept those states late Sunday made that day historical in the history of the country's storm disasters. Hour by hour the death list grows, and when the full toll of the storm is counted it is believed that it will bear the names of at least 200 victims.

In Chicago and suburbs there are 31 known dead, 500 injured and 1,500 homeless. The hospitals are filled almost to overflowing and martial law has been put in force in the districts hardest hit.

The property loss in Illinois alone is estimated at $20,000,000. Suburban towns and cities near Chicago were scenes of the greatest havoc. In some portions the twister cut a path nearly half a mile wide and several blocks long, bouncing back into the atmosphere after each visitation to rip down later into some community further eastward. Houses were ripped to splinters everywhere in its path, their occupants pinned beneath the wreckage. Churches, some of them with congregations at prayer inside, were torn to pieces with startling swiftness.

Elgin, about 45 miles from Chicago, was one of the greatest sufferers.
There the storm killed eight and cut a swath about 100 yards wide through a big portion of the business and residence sections.

The greatest damage in the Chicago city limits was in the southern part. By some freak, the storm broke before striking the city itself, one part of the twister going across the southern part of the city and the other to the north. The business section was untouched. Four persons were killed within the city limits and scores of homes destroyed.

Latest reports to reach Chicago place the following as the tornado death toll:

Chicago and nearby towns, 32.

FRENCHMAN INVENTS A LONGER RANGE GUN

Long range guns were used to a great extent in the world war, the most famous of these being the one that shelled Paris from a point some 70 miles away at the opening of the much-heralded German "lunge" offensive. This weapon, while of only slight practical value, would have been effective for propaganda purposes and for encouraging the "defeatist" movement but for the hardness of the French people, who were too courageous to flinch before any onslaught of a despised enemy. It was sighted with wonderful accuracy, and did considerable execution.

It is interesting to note that a French inventor has perfected a gun of even longer range, and that this weapon will be given an official test soon by the French government. It is claimed that it will hurl a projectile from 100 to 120 miles, and if the claim is substantiated there is further reason still for looking upon future wars with dread and apprehension. What the world now seems to need most is statesmen of longer vision, who can perfect a league of nations that will prevent wholesale murder. Small bore politicians of the Republican senatorial type are as much a menace to civilization as death-dealing artillery.

Republican chairman Will Hays at one time offered $10,000 for a party platform. And Senator Borah charges that Gen. Wood is willing to pay $1,000,000 for the privilege of running on this platform. Evidently, the platform is not the thing.

A Paris newspaper has charged that Germany is "secretly" forming an army. That's real news, as most everybody else was of the opinion that the army was being formed openly.

PATTERSON FOR PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD

(Gadsden Journal)
Gadsden has had a remarkable development in the last two decades. It is one of the fastest growing cities in Alabama. And yet, that growth would have been even greater were more attention paid to this city from a transportation standpoint.

Gadsden is, perhaps, the largest city in the country not located on a trunk line railroad. Its development has been hampered somewhat by this fact. This section has several transportation problems which deserve attention.

To get this attention should be one of the aims of Gadsden citizens. To get them through a spirit of co-operation with the railroads is sincerely to be desired. But if the railroads fail to see Gadsden's view of the situation, then there is a medium to which the city can appeal for relief. That medium is the public service commission of the state, a body which was created to take an impartial view of just such problems and to give justice to both parties. For this reason, Gadsden citizens should be much interested in the personnel of that commission.

A president of the commission is to be chosen in the May primaries. There are three candidates for the place: Sam P. Kennedy, the incumbent, A. G. Patterson of Albany and A. Coke Smith of Montgomery.

Judging from his record, the Journal believes that Mr. Kennedy should be displaced on the commission. The record shows that Mr. Kennedy is not devoting his entire time to the office. Recently, when Gadsden citizens were led to believe that the state commission would be here to give a hearing to citizens who had complaints against the public utilities of this section, the commission, including Mr. Kennedy, arrived late one afternoon and departed early the next morning. They were accompanied by officials of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, and rode in a private car, by no means the way the public travels. A meeting was held with the aldermen, but other citizens were given no opportunity to present the city's needs. So far as can be learned at this time, this section has received no benefit from the commission's visit.

As between the other two candidates for the place, the Journal believes that Mr. Patterson is best fitted for the place. He is a young man, energetic, capable, pledged to give his time and best efforts to the office, a friend of the people, but withal, fair-minded. His candidacy thus far has developed more strength than that of Mr. Smith. The Journal believes that his election will be to the interest of the Gadsden district.

Voice of the People

Albany-Decatur Daily:

Will you allow me a small space in your valuable paper in regard to A. G. Patterson as a candidate for the presidency of Alabama Public Service Commission?

Mr. Patterson is the man for the responsible position. He is well qualified. He is a friend to all good men. He is as good a friend to the poor man, as he is to the rich. He is full of good deeds. He is a whole soul Christian gentleman. He believes in the square deal to all men alike. He is well qualified for the office he aspires to. There is no better man in the state to fill that position. North Alabama will give him a solid vote in the coming primary in May. He is a prohibitionist from head to foot, through and through. He is the man for the state to elect. Vote for him in the coming primary. Mr. Patterson will not know anything about this communication until it is printed. I feel honor bound to call the people's attention to this good man's claim and his qualifications. Gentlemen, cast your vote for Mr. Patterson on May 11, 1920 and you will do God's bidding. Mr. Patterson is a true Democrat, he is an up to date man.

An Egress.

A Southerner recently saw at a railway station in Canada an old negro, says the Columbia State, looking helplessly about him.

"What's the matter, uncle?" he inquired. "Lost your way?"

"No, thank yuh, boss, not so you kin call it lost, but I is lookin' fer a colored ooman."

"Your wife?"

"No, boss, I ain't never seen her, but I ax de gemmum at de ticket window how you git out huyh, an' he say, 'You fin' a negress on dat side.' And, boss, it been so long sence I seed a colored lady, I been mighty glad to know hit. An' I been goin' 'fum side to side ever sence, an' boss, I cain't fin' her nowhere."—Savannah News.

Turtle Eggs in Chow.

Bolled turtle eggs are a novelty which has been added to the mess of the United States marines on duty at the naval station at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Two 200-pound turtles were captured recently by marines while sailing a small boat on the bay. When they were killed more than 100 eggs were found in each.

The egg of the turtle when removed from the body has a soft shell. The egg itself is about the size of a hen's egg. The inside resembles in taste and appearance the yolk of a hen's egg.

The eggs are boiled hard, and the shell is peeled off like the outer skin of an onion.

Mr. Wooten Thinks Much of ZIRON Because It Made Him His Old Self Again.

Sick people do not get much out of life. In order to enjoy your meals, to do your work well, you must be strong and healthy.

Pale, weak, nervous people frequently need iron to enrich their blood and to restore vitality to their system, and a good way to supply the iron is to follow the example of Mr. Clayton Wooten, of Scotland, Ga., who used Ziron Iron Tonic and has this to say about it:

"I have taken Ziron according to directions and I can truthfully say that it is a fine tonic. It has done me all the good. Since I began taking it, I have gained eight pounds in weight and enjoy eating three meals a day. I shall do all I can to recommend Ziron."

Try Ziron! Your druggist sells Ziron on a guarantee to refund your money if the first bottle fails to benefit. You can not lose anything, but very likely will gain much, by getting a bottle of Ziron, today!

An Education for All.

Some among you are familiar with great books. Circumstances have been such that you could indulge in the fascinating, educative and highly profitable pursuit of reading; especially in the by-paths of great fiction. Do you realize how fortunate you have been? Reading a representative number of the classic novels has given you culture and placed you on a pinnacle above many of your neighbors.

Some of you regret that you have not been so fortunate. In assemblages of the gifted and learned, when the talk turned upon literature and noted writers, you perhaps felt a sense of inferiority or mediocrity. You lamented lost opportunities or the lack of them.

Unable to maintain yourself in a discussion in which you were handicapped, you did the next best thing and listened. Going away you resolved to remedy your defects and become a reader of books. But when you went to the book stores or the libraries and contemplated the vast array, the long list of authors and the evidences of their industry, the task, however attractive it might be in theory, became simply appalling in practice. Your work, your home and public duties and all the unavoidable demands upon your time made it impossible. If denied the advantages of a circulating library, the expense involved in the purchase of books frequently became a prohibitive item.

It takes months, even years to get a fair start, to say nothing of burrowing deeply into the great mass of volumes and tomes. In many cases the reading of a single important book will consume one's leisure for weeks. However attractive the study and boundless your enthusiasm, other considerations thwarted your intentions.

Scientific, historical and general knowledge has been condensed into encyclopedias—handy volumes for busy people. Language has its dictionaries which give at a glance pithy, accurate definitions with the origin and various applications of each word. Why, you ask, has not literature, especially fiction which represents the spirit, the culture and the main springs of human activities of all times, been so condensed or rendered into a more convenient form?

Exactly that service has been performed by a coterie of scholars, authors and other distinguished persons. We propose to relay it to you through these columns at no additional expense to you. All the great books of the world have not been condensed, but enough of the fiction has been dealt with to cover the field. The condensations are not mere synopses nor skeleton outlines. They are novels reduced to the limits of a short story, retaining the plots, characters, chief incidents, atmosphere, spirit and charm of the originals. Each condensation averages about two columns in length and can be read in 15 to 20 minutes.

Works having a special application have been treated by people with special knowledge or experience along those lines. For instance, the political and historical novels of Winston Churchill, which take high rank in American literature, have been condensed: "The Crisis" by William Howard Taft, ex-president of the United States; "Coniston" by Samuel W. McCall and "Richard Carvel" by David I. Walsh, ex-governors of Massachusetts.

Kipling's "Captains Courageous," Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe" and other nautical tales, as well as some of the works of James Fenimore Cooper have been condensed by James B. Connolly, the well known writer of sea stories. Librarian Bolton of the Boston Athenaeum and Richard Henry Dana of Cambridge, have handled Thackeray; Librarian Belden of the Boston Public Library has condensed some of the stories of Dickens; Ellery Sedgwick, editor of the Atlantic Monthly, George Eliot's "Adam Bede." The editor and proprietor of the Boston News Bureau, an organization devoted entirely to the dissemination of business news, has condensed "The Turn of Mind." Booth Tarkington's great novel of American business life.

The list is too long for enumeration here. It contains the outstanding works of Scott, Bulwer, Dumas, Hawthorne, Bunyan, Gaboriau, Caine, Hugo, Doyle, Irving, Homer, Virgil, Kingsley, Mulock, Stowe, Hardy, Reade, Twain, Stevenson, Maryat and many others. Distinguished college men, such as William Fenwick Harris of Cambridge, T. L. Hood and Capt. Andre Morize of Harvard; and distinguished authors, such as Basil King, Paul Revere Frothingham, Caroline Ticknor, Irving Bacheller, John Kendrick Bangs, Cyrus Townsend Brady, Caroline Wells, Mary E. Wilkins-Freeman, and others have made the condensations. A score were achieved through a prize competition, the best work being selected by a committee of experts.

The educational value of these condensations cannot be exaggerated. They will also delight and satisfy. Through them you will in a short time find yourself well informed on literature and you will have acquired the knowledge easily and pleasantly. The condensations will prove that the best books are neither highbrow nor dull, but on the contrary most fascinating. Order your paper in time to start with the beginning of the condensed classics.

These classics will be printed from time to time in the Daily, beginning shortly.

INTEREST GREAT IN REVIVAL SERVICES

MANY MAKE PROFESSION OF FAITH AT CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH.

By actual count more than a hundred men, were in attendance at the Centenary men's revival, held at the Central Methodist church yesterday afternoon. Pastor W. P. McGlawn made the address, and before he closed there was deep conviction upon the whole body of men. Without exception, every man present put himself on record as determined upon a more consecrated life. Some who had not previously manifested religious concern appeared to be deeply moved by the exhortation of Rev. McGlawn, and the song service as led by E. A. Henry. The meeting closed with earnest prayer by Rev. Spearman, pastor of the Austinville Methodist church. It was stated that at the morning service held at this church 48 were received on profession of faith, which number added to those already received on profession of faith, which number added to those already received made a total of 67 received up to last evening.

Said Rev. McGlawn, in inviting full cooperation by every one until the present campaign closes Eastern Sunday. "We are thankful for the results so far, but we have only begun. We should win a great victory for God, or else the devil will cheat us out of our present gains."

According to many who attended yesterday afternoon's meeting, at no time for years has such deep interest been manifested in a meeting for men only. The success in attendance was attributed to a constant campaign of invitation. Letters, like the copy below have been distributed broadcast, and a number of them signed by groups of men and tacked up in the Louisville and Nashville shops and elsewhere:

"Dear Friend:

"We have in progress at the Central Methodist church a series of Evangelical meetings to continue this week and next. We are anxious to have all the people attend these services. Our Pastor, Brother McGlawn is giving us some good old-fashioned Gospel Sermons, and we have a splendid choir and good soul stirring music. We would so much like to have you with, won't you come?"

"We need your presence and we feel that the meetings will be an uplift to our city. Please come."

Bends, but Cuts Glass.

GIVE STIMULATION TO GENIUS

Toxins Manufactured in Man's Own System Powerfully Affect the Associative Faculties.

Genius is a question of sensitization of protoplasm—it goes back to physical fact. And the foundation of the greatest cathedral of beauty ever erected by the mind of genius rests squarely upon the flesh of a man's body, writes Jeanette Marks in the Yale Review. Sensitized protoplasm vibrates in answer to outside impressions, with concentric waves of varying diameter. The stimulated, sensitized protoplasm sets the associative faculties to work, and the bigger the genius. It is just here in the morbid stimulation of protoplasm that toxins, drugs, alcohol, enter in. Disorder reigns supreme, chaos, noise, nervousness, near-madness, through the stimulus of some toxins manufactured in a man's own system. Tea, coffee, drugs, alcohol, seem temporarily at least to put the mental furniture in order, to bring harmony where there has been disorder. Opium is not genius. Madness is not genius. But both would sometimes appear to have the power to act as unimpeded genius where its right to go forward is in question. And it would seem that the purchasing power in dreams was even greater in insanity than with either alcohol or opium.

Cork Fabric.

Not so long ago we saw a description in a foreign paper of a fabric which was made from cork by a recently discovered French process. It was said to be waterproof, a non-conductor of heat and unbreakable. By using a special machine, thin slices of cork are placed in chemical baths to remove the resinous parts which make cork more or less brittle. Upon the removal of the resin the sheets of cork become flexible and may be compared in that respect with leather. In fact the sheets may be folded and bent without breaking. By combining the cork sheets with any suitable cloth, preferably a thin and strong cloth of good color, an excellent waterproof material may be obtained. According to the description given an adhesive preparation is employed to glue the cork to the cloth; or if a stronger garment is desired, the cork sheets are placed between two layers of cloth.

Longest and Shortest Days.

The days generally known as the longest and shortest days of the year are the days which occur when the sun is farthest removed from the celestial equator. There are two such points in the ecliptic, one where it touches the tropic of Capricorn and the other where it touches the tropic of Cancer. The former is known as the summer solstice and the latter the winter solstice to those who inhabit the northern latitude and vice versa. The sun attains these two points on June 21 and December 21, which are commonly known as the longest and shortest days of the year.

USED TOBACCO AS INCENSE

American Indians Inhaled Fumes as They Burned the Fragrant "Weed" to Their Gods.

Smoking was a habit acquired by European nations from the Indians of America. In 1492 Columbus found them using tobacco, not as is now done, but as an incense burned in honor of their deity.

Tobacco smoking began as a religious rite. Tobacco was used by the Indians much as oriental nations made use of myrrh or frankincense in their religious observances. Voyagers to America after Columbus revealed different customs in the tobacco habit. It was discovered that in certain parts of the continent the natives inhaled the incense until they became exhilarated or even intoxicated by the fumes. This meant for them that they derived inspiration from the good pleasure of their deity. The honor paid to the deity came back upon them in exhilarating profusion.

From that step was not far to ascertain that lifeless offered to a god could be employed as a medicine. It was drawn into the mouth through a hollow tube—a kind of pipe—and then expelled as smoking. To the rationalizing Europeans it was left to transmit the poor Indian's worship into an ordinary pleasurable habit.

The "Punch" in Gasoline.

The gentle that came out of the bottle in the "Arabian Nights" story became, when liberated, a monstrous power. The energy stored in a pint of gasoline is hardly less stupendous.

One pint of gasoline represents 12,000 "B. T. U.'s" of energy. A "B. T. U." (the abbreviation for British thermal unit) will lift 750 pounds one foot. Thus there is in that single pint of innocent looking fluid enough power to lift six tons 750 feet into the air—that is to say, 200 feet higher than the top of Washington monument.—Kansas City Star.

Keep The Egg Basket Full!

The feed elements that make whites of eggs are entirely different from those that make yolks. When hens aren't fed both the white and yolk making elements, they can't keep the egg basket full. The usual method of feeding mostly grain makes yolks but not enough whites to complete the eggs.

Missouri Experiment Station tests prove that 100 lbs. of wheat, corn, oats, barley and kafir corn make (above bodily maintenance) an average of 224 yolks to 154 whites. Based on data from the same experiments, Purina formulas produce, (above bodily maintenance), as follows:—

	Yolks	Whites
Purina Scratch Feed	247.49	142.11
Purina Chicken Chowder	182.05	282.55
Combined Ration	429.54	424.66

These Purina feeds not only make a practically equal number of whites and yolks but more of both than ordinary feeds.

Note that Purina Chicken Chowder contains the necessary white-forming elements to balance up the yolk-making grain ration. That's why it makes hens lay so heavily. Instead of the yolks being absorbed by the hen's system, Purina Chicken Chowder makes the whites to complete the eggs and they are laid. Thus we can absolutely guarantee more eggs or money back on Purina Chicken Chowder if fed with Purina Scratch Feed as directed. You take no risk.

Isn't This the True Mark of Hudson Endurance?

No Stock Car Ever Equalled Its Official Records
In Speed-Hill-Climbing, Acceleration, Endurance

In every performance asked of a motor Hudson's official records reveal greater ability than any other car has ever shown.

They have stood for five years. They are not held by hairs' breadth, but by big, convincing margins, before which argument is dumb. They prove the master type, with limits of power speed, and endurance that none has matched to this day.

Yet if they stood for only contest supremacy, they would have small importance to you.

In all the years your Hudson serves, you will hardly require its full capacity. You do not want 80-mile-an-hour speed. You will scarcely encounter a situation to tax its limit of power.

These Qualities Count in Every Day Service

Of course, there is pride in possession of car qualities you know are unexcelled. And this performance mastery gives innumerable advantages. For instance, you travel faster within the speed limits. That is because you are away quicker. You pick-up faster. You have power that levels hills with ease. You have smoothness that makes the long journey comfortable and free of fatigue.

But you will have far more occasions to admire Hudson's superb riding ease, its good looks, and its trustworthy dependability, than its more spectacular qualities of great speed and power.

So, it is chiefly as they reveal its basic principle of supremacy—the control of vibration—that the Super-Six's world famous records are important.

The exclusive Super-Six motor adds no weight or size. Yet it adds 72% to power, and 80% to efficiency. It almost doubles endurance. It does this by converting to useful power the destructive force of vibration, which uncontrolled quickly undermines motor endurance.

That is why the Super-Six can go faster, farther and lasts longer.

These are official proofs. All can verify them.

Endurance Gave it Mastery On the Speedway

Nothing shows the dominance of the Super-Six principle more clearly than its success in high-speed racing. It was never intended for a racing car. Yet, pitted against the world's fastest cars, some of which cost as high as $25,000, the Super-Six won, time after time, because it could maintain the terrific pace without self-destruction.

Ever since Hudson made those records it has been the largest selling fine car in the world. Each year the demand increases. By no possibility will all who want Hudsons be able to get them.

You should place your order now for your Hudson, even though delivery is not desired until summer.

PEANUTS IN MELON PATCH FOR HOGS.

By F. D. Stevens, Farm Management Specialist.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala. It will soon be time to plant water melon in the Southern part of the State. This crop always shows a goodly percent of culls which the hogs relish, and it is quite the custom to "tote" them out to the head. Some have found this useless labor however and have contrived to lighten their burden, by a judicious planting of other crops in the melon field, so that the hogs can be turned in on not only a varied but a fattening ration, as soon as the last car of melons is shipped, which will be about July 1st.

One farmer whom I have visited lately has a 15 acre field, in which he plants 10 acres of melons spaced 10 by 10 feet. In the centers he plants a row of Virginia bunch peanuts. The remaining 5 acres he divides into two parts planting 4 acres to Tennessee red cob corn, or any early variety, and the remaining acre to Sorghum. In spite of the fact that sorghum is not generally recommended as a hog feed it is quite likely that in a small acreage it is warranted and that the hogs relish it as a change whether it is fattening or not. Further it would appear that the ration could be improved by planting soybeans along with the corn. This would not injure the stand of corn, in fact would help it, as it is generally conceded that a leguminous crop growing along with a non-legume furnishes its excess nitrogen to the growing non-legume crop and in so doing not only strengthens the tissues of the corn itself but actually renders it higher in protein than corn of the same variety grown alone.

But I have digressed from my story, for I was talking of this man's crops as planted as a summer feed for hogs, and the year that I made my visit he was particularly pleased to tell me that he had run 47 hogs on the 15 acres so planted from early July to September at which time they were ready for market having made very satisfactory gains, and thus going onto the market early during a period when prices are always high.

A little study will lighten labor on the farm, as well as spell success.

SPRING FEVER

Following Colds, Grip or Flu.

This, Watery or Poisoned Blood

(By Dr. VALENTINE MOTT.)

At this time of year most people suffer from what we term "spring fever" because of a stagnant condition of the blood, because of the toxins (poisons) stored up within the body during the long winter. We eat too much meat, with little or no green vegetables.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the spring-time of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier. Such a tonic as druggists have sold for fifty years, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form. Made without alcohol from wild roots and barks.

N. BIRMINGHAM, ALA. — "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is certainly a good medicine for deep-seated colds, and as a tonic I have found it to be all that could be desired. For the last forty-five years 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' have been used in my home, for in my boyhood days my mother used these remedies of Dr. Pierce's and no other medicines were ever used by her as long as she lived. She had none but the highest praise for them, and from my own experience with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for colds and the 'Pleasant Pellets' for biliousness and constipation, I know that these medicines deserve the highest praise that I can give." — ED. ERWIN, No. 2513 Twentieth Avenue.

MUSICAL COMEDY MASONIC THEATRE TUESDAY NIGHT

Shorty Yager, who for several seasons has appeared in this vicinity with "Mutt & Jeff" and one of the smallest comedians on the road, will come to the Masonic theatre Tuesday night with his "Tourist Girls" company for an engagement of 5 days, presenting tabloid comedies and vaudeville specialties. Their opening bill, entitled "Nutt & Jess" is guaranteed to cure the blues. One of the big features of the show is the tourist quartette, harmony singers. The picture for Tuesday night is a De Luxe production of Mary Roberts Rhinehart's story, "The Fleet of Seven Stars."

MARGARET ROMAINE ENGAGED

Brilliant Prima Donna of Metropolitan Opera Company, Big Feature of Season to appear at Masonic Theatre on April 13.

Music lovers here will witness the first appearance in concert of the brilliant new Prima Donna Soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Co., Margaret Romaine, about whose glorious soprano voice and fascinating personality much has been heard in recent seasons. Miss Romaine's first sensational success in opera was made at the Opera Comique in Paris. She was later engaged for the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, her debut having been made there in the role of Musetta in Puccini's ever-popular "La Boheme." Miss Romaine was at once hailed as one of the greatest of present-day lyric sopranos. In Miss Romaine's operatic repertoire are included the roles of Marguerite in "Faust," Cinzia in "Le Cid," Thaïs in the opera of that name, Musetta in "Boheme," Manon in the Massenet version of Manon Lescault, Rachel in "La Juive," "Tosca" Madam Butterfly, "Pravata," and "Werther."

It is doubtful if any operatic soprano since Schriber has brought to the concert stage the degree of art and brilliancy of voice as has Miss Romaine. In Paris and Milan she had the advantage of coaching the famous operatic roles and Modern French and Italian masterpieces of song with the composers themselves. With Tosti, Benbow, Duparc and Debussy, Miss Romaine learned the great composers' intent and every inflection, so that at the hands of this distinguished artist the singing of these lovely songs take on a new meaning. It is said that there is nothing more lovely now on the American concert stage than the voicing of these modern French songs by Margaret Romaine. For six years she lived in the atmosphere of Paris, in the pre-war days, and again and again sang in concerts throughout France and Italy. Nor has the singing of American songs been neglected by Miss Romaine, for indeed her concert programs contain many of the finest contributions of song literature by native composers. She has introduced several new composers to American audiences and has been much sought after as a creator of new and important songs. Miss Romaine's program here will include not only operatic arias from several of the great operas, but also songs in French and English, the singing of which have brought this brilliant diva fame both in Europe and America.

"OUT OF THE SHADOW" DRAMATIC PICTURE

Pauline Frederick's New Film Has Strong Appeal—Delite Today.

A photoplay with a distinct heart appeal and tense dramatic action is "Out of the Shadow," Pauline Frederick's latest Paramount starring vehicle which will be shown at the Delite theatre today. The story is a picturization of E. W. Hornung's celebrated novel, "The Shadow of the Rope" which was one of the best sellers of England and this country several years ago.

Miss Frederick plays the role of a young Australian bride, recently arrived in America, who is unjustly accused of the murder of her brutal husband. The big scene is laid in a court room where the web of circumstantial evidence all but succeeds in convicting her of the crime. The court room setting, is said to be most elaborate, even to the mural decorations, and it is regarded by all who have seen it as a masterpiece of stagecraft.

In the role of Miss Minchin, the hapless bride, Miss Frederick is said to have one of the most intensely emotional parts with which she has yet been provided. A cast of more than ordinary excellence has been chosen to support the star.
